the federally recognized Tribes in Washington and Idaho, and communities in Washington State.

Past projects (for project details, please see www.npcresearch.com or contact Dr. Mackin):

- Oregon Community Foundation, Regional Action Initiative: Evaluation Director and consultant to the OCF RAI staff at the state and regional levels. OCF has provided funding to eight regional groups to identify community needs and fund services or other activities to meet those needs. Communities have identified youth education, mentoring, dental health, literacy, parent education, and community schools as areas of focus.
- Warm Springs Facility Planning: Facilitator for the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs on a planning grant they received to conduct a comprehensive community needs assessment, data collection and analyses, and planning for a Justice Center to be built on the reservation (the Center would include a juvenile detention facility, adult jail, courtrooms, police offices, conference and training space, and space for services to be provided to youth).
- NARA Life Is Sacred (Youth Suicide Prevention Project): Evaluation Director for a federally funded project to the Native American Rehabilitation Association of the Northwest to support youth suicide prevention awareness, system development, and direct services to the nine federally recognized Tribes in Oregon and the urban Indian population in the Portland metropolitan area. Additional funds obtained to conduct youth surveys and focus groups, and to analyze archival data related to suicide risk and protective factors for Native youth, as well as develop materials that Tribes can use to increase awareness of youth suicide, build protective factors (such as parent support), and encourage funding for culturally-based prevention services.
- The Library Foundation and Multnomah County Library: Evaluation consultant for various child and family literacy programs provided by Multnomah County Library, Oregon, including Raising A Reader and Books 2 U. Past evaluations have included Summer Reading, New Parent Packages, and Every Family Reads.
- Fostering Attachment Treatment Court: Evaluation Director to provide process evaluation for the family drug treatment court program in Marion County, Oregon.
- Georgia Drug Courts: Expert consultant providing feedback and technical assistance to drug court programs based on the results of an assessment of their use of best practices. Consultation for development of a peer review and certification process for their drug court programs.
- Florida Drug Courts: Principal Investigator to provide best practice assessment to all of the Adult Drug Court programs in Florida, and process, outcome, and cost evaluations of five programs.

- Sargent Shriver Evaluation: Co-Principal Investigator for an evaluation of 10 pilot sites in California providing legal services to people involved in civil cases (housing, child custody, and probate) for the Administrative Office of the Courts.
- Oregon Measure 57: Co-Principal Investigator to provide process, outcome, and cost evaluation for four Oregon adult drug court programs, including longitudinal interviews with program participants and control group participants.
- Tobacco Prevention and Education Program: Principal Investigator to provide participatory program evaluation services, including qualitative and quantitative data collection and analysis, to the State of Oregon for staff in the Health Promotion and Chronic Disease Prevention section and the Council of Local Health Officials Chronic Disease Committee.
- Kalispell Drug/DUI Courts: Evaluation Director to provide process and outcome evaluation for the municipal adult drug court and DUI court programs in Kalispell, Montana.
- Idaho Drug Court Peer Review Fidelity Assessment: Project Director to Idaho to produce a drug court best practice assessment tool, peer review materials, and training curriculum.
- Portland Children's Levy Mentoring: Project Director for assessment, evaluation consultation, and technical assistance to the Portland Children's Levy and nine social service agencies located in the City of Portland that provide mentoring services to children and youth.
- Legacy Children's Clinic: Evaluation Consultant to help measure increased access to health care and family stability due to support from a medical social worker for children entering foster care.
- Oregon Commission on Children and Families Community Planning and Implementation Data System Exploration: Exploration of statewide data system containing community planning and program/service implementation information. Included extraction, aggregation, and analysis of data and production of a summary report of findings and recommendations.
- SAMHSA 10 Key Components of Drug Courts Technical Assistance: Project Director for assessment and technical assistance project including 22 Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration adult drug court and Tribal wellness court treatment enhancement grantees located throughout the United States.
- Tillamook Commission on Children and Families: Evaluation consultant to support process and outcome evaluation of this effort to provide systems coordination for youth and families needing support from multiple community agencies.
- Civil Right to Counsel, Phase 2: Project Director for a pilot study of two sites (Philadelphia, PA, and Tacoma [Pierce Co.], WA) to identify data availability and establish variables to include in a larger cost and outcome study of providing legal support services to indigent individuals in landlord/tenant legal disputes.

- Maryland Drug Treatment Courts: Project Director for process, outcome and cost evaluations of juvenile drug courts, adult (circuit and district) drug courts, and family recovery (dependency) courts throughout Maryland.
- Tribal Evaluation Services: Evaluation Director for various projects providing evaluation measures, data analyses, and reports to Tribes in Oregon, assisting with evaluating their methamphetamine prevention, gang prevention, and other prevention services for children, youth, families, and communities.
- Umatilla County Drug Court: Evaluation Director for a process evaluation of this drug court program in northeastern Oregon.
- Baltimore City Drug Courts Employment Enhancement Projects: Principal Investigator for two Baltimore City drug court program enhancement programs, one for juveniles and the other for adults. These two employment augmentation programs are collaborations with Goodwill Industries of the Chesapeake. The juvenile project focuses on arts internships and one-on-one career counseling services. A process evaluation documented the accomplishments and challenges of this program. The adult project focuses on job readiness, employment counseling, job placement, and support services. NPC conducted a process evaluation and cost-benefit study of this employment enhancement program to analyze the different criminal justice, employment and earnings outcomes of adults in drug court programming alone compared to those who receive services from drug court plus the employment support services.
- NARA Family Circle: Research Consultant for a federally funded project to the Native American Rehabilitation Association of the Northwest to support a treatment enhancement program providing wrap-around services to Native American and Alaska Native families in the Portland-Metro area who are in recovery for substance abuse. The primary evaluation goal is to document the efficacy of the program enhancements—housing, education and employment services—on participant outcomes.
- Oregon State Incentive Grant, Enhancement for Early Childhood Prevention: Evaluation Director for a Center for Substance Abuse Prevention cooperative agreement to address the integration of behavioral health (substance abuse prevention, substance abuse treatment, and mental health services) in the early childhood system of care, serving young children 0-6 and their families.
- COPE: Evaluator for a program serving juvenile-justice-involved girls with diagnosed mental health and drug/alcohol abuse or addiction, through the Marion County (Oregon) Juvenile Department. The evaluation involved assessment of changes in risk and protective factors and recidivism, program engagement and retention, and qualitative description of clinical changes in the participants.

- Healthy Start: Evaluation Co-Director for a statewide evaluation of this home visitor program for families with newborns. Evaluation outcomes of interest include the prevention of child maltreatment, positive parent-child interaction, parent knowledge of child social and emotional development, and healthy infants and children, among others.
- Formula Grant Evaluation Services: Evaluation consultant to provide feedback and technical assistance services to the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission for the evaluation of juvenile justice and delinquency prevention projects funded with federal Formula Grant funds, consultation to improve and enhance data collection and evaluation components for the following year's projects, and assisting the agency develop future requests for proposals.
- Reclaiming Futures, Center for Coaching and Development: Project Director for a process evaluation to provide feedback and recommendations regarding a pilot project providing training and technical assistance to communities working to enhance coordination and service availability to juvenile justice-involved youth who need substance abuse treatment.
- Juvenile Accountability Incentive Block Grant – Risk Assessment Continuation and Data Analysis Projects: Consultant to the Oregon Juvenile Department Directors' Association to provide technical assistance to screeners and reliability and validity testing related to a risk screen/assessment to identify youth at risk of juvenile justice involvement. Also assisted with model development, data analysis, report writing, and presentation of statewide data on juvenile justice referrals, recidivism, and dispositions.
- Safe Passages: Lead evaluator for the Youth Offender strategy of a multi-level initiative to reduce youth violence in Oakland, CA. The youth offender strategy provides case management services.
- Strengths-Based Restorative Justice Assessment Tool: Evaluation Director for a pilot project to develop and test a strengths-based assessment tool and process with three county juvenile justice departments in Oregon.
- Friends of the Children Evaluations: Evaluation Director for two evaluation projects involving this organization that provides long-term child/adolescent mentoring. NPC has provided process and outcome evaluation to the Portland, Oregon, chapter of this organization as well as evaluation consultation to the National office. One of the past projects included outcome and process evaluation of three additional program sites in Oregon. Another project was a data collection component of a study of the Portland, Oregon, chapter for the California office of research firm Public/Private Ventures.
